Dear Congregation,

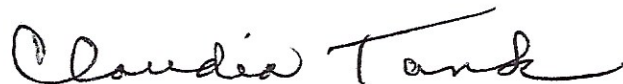

I am unable to attend your celebration due to family commitments. Thank you for your invitation. I truly enjoyed serving your community from the fall of 1999 to the fall of 2002. Your congregation will always hold a special place in my heart.

At the time I resigned, I enjoyed the birth of our first grandchild in Houston. Since then we have been blessed with 14 more grandchildren. Six of them live in Iowa but the others are living in Houston, Texas; Holland, Michigan; Denver, Colorado; and Mt. Horeb, Wisconsin. We spend a good deal of our good weather time visiting our children or hosting them in our home.

We moved to Ankeny in December, 2016. We downsized to a townhome so that we could travel and not have a huge yard to maintain.

My Very Best to all of you. I wish you many blessings during this special time of celebration.

Sincerely,
