MEN'S BIBLE STUDY

The Men's Bible Study is a lasting expression of several small Bible study groups that WHLC initiated in the 80's when WHLC members met for Bible study over the lunch hour downtown, in member's homes and a group for men met Saturday morning at the church. The current group is the continuation of the Saturday morning group, and has met consistently for more than 30 years. The group has focused on the indicated Bible readings for the coming Sunday, but occasionally other resources have been used for specific studies. On occasion, speakers have been invited to supplement our study. Discussion usually involves application of the liturgy to current personal and social issues. Biblical understanding, spiritual growth, witnessing and confession are expressions of this group's purpose.

The group has sponsored two ecumenical meetings with men's groups from other Lutheran churches that included serving a Saturday morning breakfast with a short program. Members have helped other WHLC programs by serving Saturday breakfast for the Family Promise families, providing kitchen help and washing dishes after WHLC events.

Men's Bible Study meets virtually on Tuesday mornings at 6:45 a.m. Please contact Chuck Safris if you would like to join! All are welcome!
