

Based on the number of daily new cases in Polk County, the WHLC Health Advisory Team recommends that we continue to follow CDC guidelines calling for masks in indoor public spaces, even for vaccinated individuals, to reduce the spread of the Delta variant. Please wear a mask when indoors at church. This guidance pertains to worship and all other activities. Thank you for doing your part.